Sexual Misconduct Required Reporting: Title IX/Policy 311-A

Sample 1:

The Vermont State Colleges System is committed to ensuring our campuses are safe places for students and employees. Faculty and staff are considered mandated reporters when it comes to experiences of interpersonal violence (sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating/domestic violence, and stalking). Disclosures of interpersonal violence will be reported to the Title IX Coordinator, who can help provide support and academic accommodations for students who have been impacted. Sample 2:

The Vermont State Colleges System is committed to ensuring our campuses are safe places for students and employees. Faculty and staff are considered mandated reporters when it comes to experiences of interpersonal violence (sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating/domestic violence, and stalking). Disclosures of interpersonal violence will be reported to the Title IX Coordinator, who can help provide support and academic accommodations for students who have been impacted.

I will seek to keep information you share with me private to the greatest extent possible. However, I am required to report incidents of interpersonal violence of which I am made aware. An important exception to the reporting requirement exists for incidents that are shared as part of an academic project or assignment.
